THE GOLD LEAF MAILBOX

What You Missed ... Fall Mystery Tour 2010:

It's no mystery, this tour was a big success. For those of you that didn't join the 46 Gold Leafers that attended our Fall Mystery Tour, we thought it would be nice (and maybe a little ornery) to let you know what you missed in the hopes that next time you'll know that a Gold Leaf mystery trip means fun and adventure, even if you don't know where you are going.

The weather was beautiful, an absolutely perfect autumn day. First stop on the itinerary was Crystal Springs Ranch – new home of the world-famous Budweiser Clydesdales. Everyone loved getting their picture taken with the horses, and the tour was very informative. Crystal Springs is truly a world-class facility. From there, it was time for a fried-chicken lunch at the Settlers Inn – always a big hit. After lunch, we ventured north to visit the Missouri Horticulture and Agri-Business Farm near New Franklin. That is a long name but it was a great tour as we drove the grounds and learned about how the land can be used in unique ways to make an income. There were apple orchards, peaches, chestnut trees and even a truffle farm. A very fun and relaxing stop. And since we were in New Franklin, the tour made a quick visit to Jennings Meats to check out the smoke shop. Of course everyone was given a sample. And we weren't through yet! Vintage Hill Nursery was next on the itinerary. They specialize in exotic and unique plants and are located on a 100 year old farm north of New Franklin. While there, everyone on the tour was surprised with a free fall mum – they were beautiful! Whew! At this point it had been a busy day and so a little rest stop was in order. For this, the tour stopped Les Bourgeois Winery. Dessert was served on the deck overlooking the Missouri River – a spectacular view! It was a great way to wind up the day and reflect on all we had done. It was another fun-filled Gold Leaf Mystery Tour. Next time, we want you to join us.

SPRING TREASURE HUNTING

IN HERMANN & WASHINGTON, MO

Date: Thursday, April 21

Cost: $75 per person

Includes: Transportation, lunch, snacks, and more.

Our Treasure Hunt and Antique spree last year was enjoyed by all, so we wanted to do it again, but to some new places. This spring we have chosen the Washington and Hermann, Mo., area, and for several good reasons. There is a gigantic thrift store in Washington called The Second Time Around that is full of great stuff. Washington also has a fantastic little downtown with lovely antique shops. And Hermann is full of wonderful places to do some digging around, including The Golden Rhino and Pete's Plunder. In short, there will be plenty to see and a lot of browsing to do. Lunch will be in Washington at the famous Cowan's Restaurant. What are they famous for? The pie!

Dinner buffet is included, plus Jerry and Loretta have a special "progressive party" planned for everyone that night at the hotel - you won't want to miss it. After a fun night at Lumiere, the next morning we will board the Tom Sawyer and take a scenic riverboat cruise to the lovely town of Kimmswick. After docking, we will make our way to the world-famous Blue Owl Restaurant for a home-style lunch that will be sure to include its legendary pie. St. Louis Cardinals vs. Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium

Date: Friday, June 3 • Cost: $90 per person

Includes: Tickets to the game (great seats!), transportation, snacks, drinks and fun on the motorcoach

Another season of Cardinal baseball has rolled around, and two things are the same every year: We love Albert Pujols and we hate the Cubs! If you take in one game this season, seeing the Cards battle the Cubbies is the way to go. It is, quite simply, the best atmosphere for a ballgame to be found anywhere. We have great seats in the Left Field Loge Level, out of the evening sun. As always we will have beer and drinks on the bus and a "goodie bag" for everyone to take into the game. We will also be making a stop for an on-your-own pre-game dinner somewhere nice in the St. Louis area.
