Refer a Friend

Receive Rewards!

We don't just say we appreciate your business at The Callaway Bank, we show it! Now you can earn points for referring your friends to this great program.

Simply add your information on this card, and give it to your friends and colleagues. When they open their account at any Callaway Bank lobby location and present this card, you'll both earn free points. When they open a free personal or business checking account and Visa[®] Check Card, we will reward both of you with 3,500 points.

The more referrals you make, the more rewards you get! And, there's no limit on the number of referrals you can make.

You must have an active Callaway Bank Rewards account. Your friend must present this card at the time their account and check card are opened for either of you to receive your reward points. The referral offer applies only when your friend does not currently have a checking account with The Callaway Bank. Limit one reward per new household or business. All new accounts and check cards are subject to our normal approval process, and require a minimum opening balance. See a Personal Banker for new account details. Offer is not valid if the new customer was a signer on a Callaway Bank personal or business checking account within the past six months. Due to privacy regulations, please understand that we will not be able to disclose who opened the account(s) for which you receive points. Points may take up to 60 days to be posted to your account.
